

VIKING TREASURES

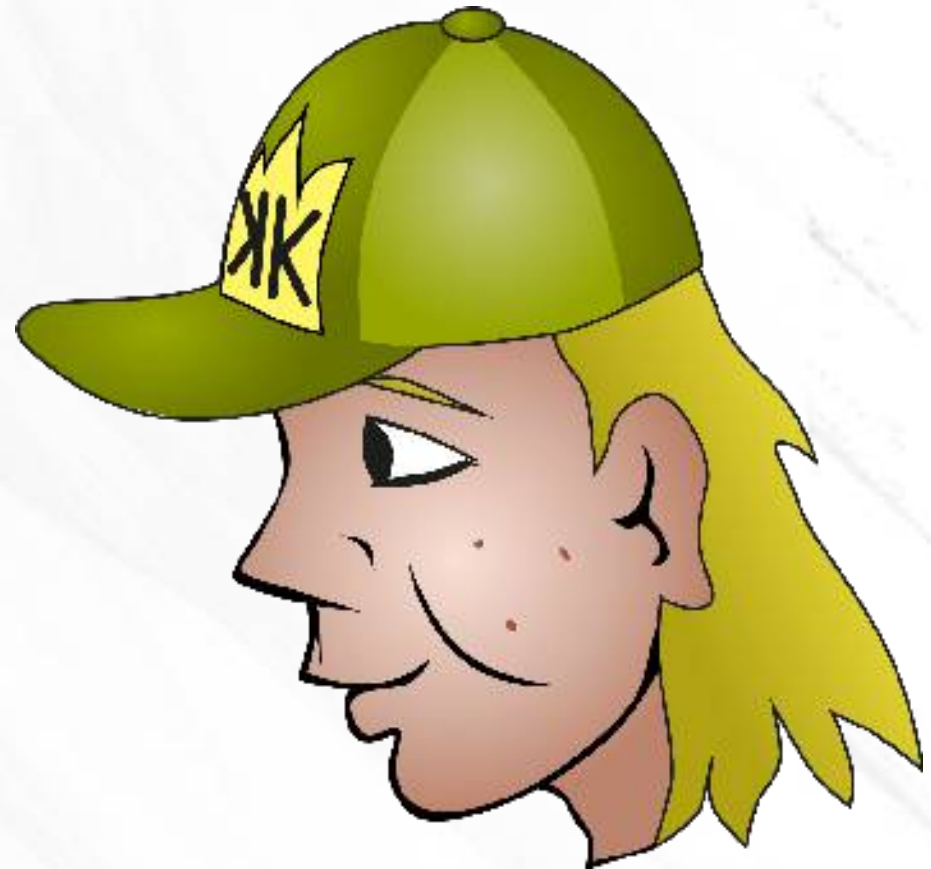

KIM KOLLEKTOR

COLLECTING GAME

- Kim Kollektor travels around the world and Europe, following In the Footsteps of the Vikings, searching for historical Viking material for his collection:
- Archaeological artefacts, pictures and texts, as well as cartoons gathered during the adventure.

Travel, Archaeology,
Adventure, Business...

TRAVEL & EXHIBITIONS

- Kim Kollektor and his team visit varied cities and municipalities. He can visit museums or private collections to gather material for his collection.
- He arranges exhibitions in different cities, to earn money from the visitor fees.

ENERGY MONEY FAME

- Energy: Maintaining energy level is crucial to succeed in the mission.
- Money: Kim needs funds to travel, arrange excavations and exhibitions.
- Fame: The utmost and final goal is to gather fame as an collector and an archaeologist.

CASTLE IN MALTA

Kim Kollektor owns a castle in Malta, which he has bought using a lottery prize.

He has lot of room for his collections, but he wants also show them to the public.

GHOST CAMERA

Kim can photograph cartoons from the ancient era using his special ghost camera.

When he aims and shoots to a ghost, the Viking Ghost shows a cartoon strip from the Viking era.

Kim can combine these strips and show them in an exhibition.

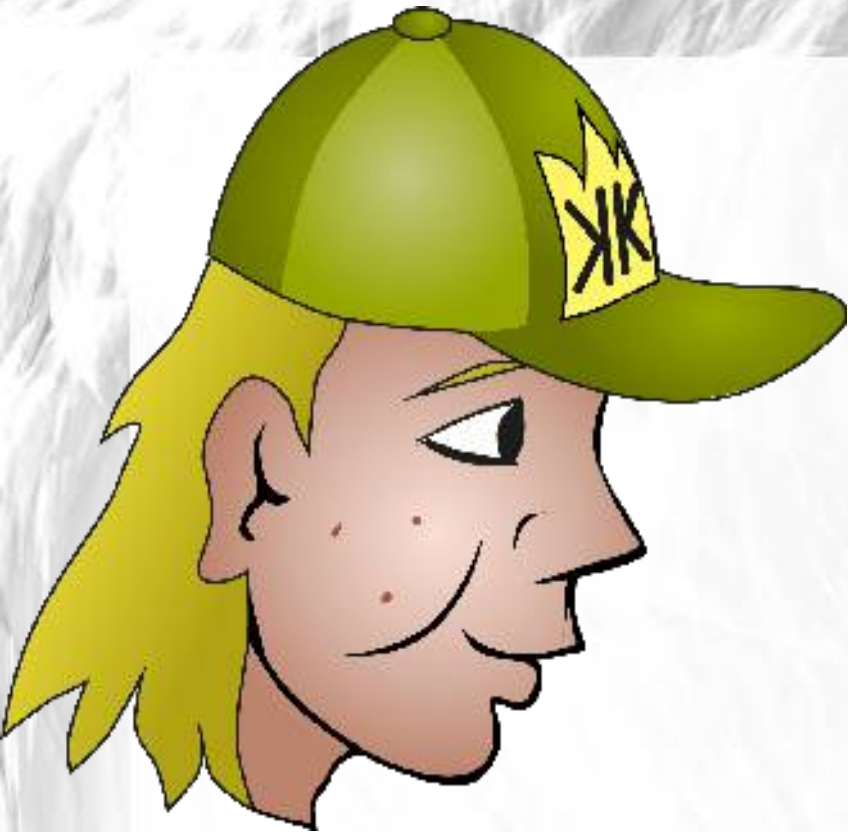

PROFESSOR

On his trip in the footsteps of the Vikings, Kim gets help from his friend and former teacher in the University, Professor Juan Torero.

TEAM

Other team members are Daisy Lake, secretary, mechanic Hans, who keeps the equipment in shape and maintains the vehicles, and last but not least, Georg – a parrot or Genetically Engineered Organism (this is a especially clever parrot!)

VIKING TREASURES

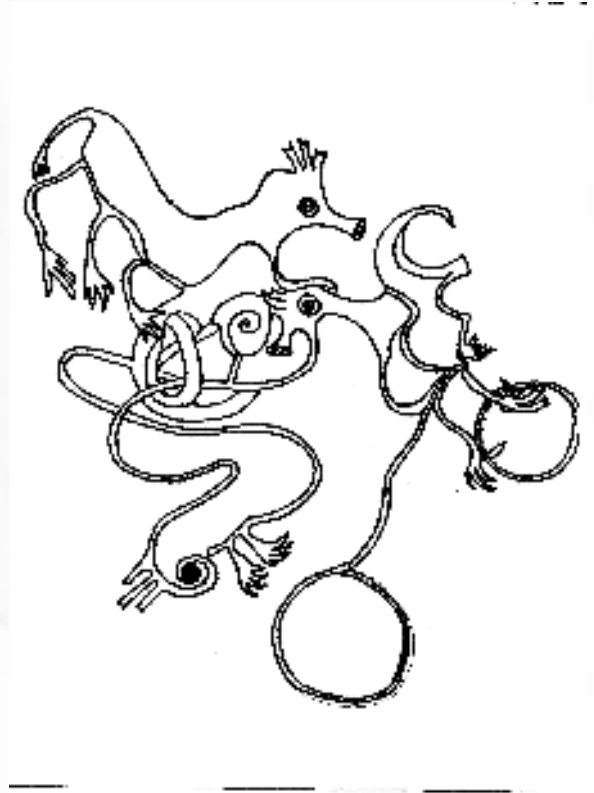

Kim searches the ground using a soil radar. It's automatic, but you should adjust a few parameters.

He'll search the grounds also using a metal detector or treasure detector to find silver and other metal artifacts.

INTERESTING ARTIFACTS

You can dig right away or let the workers do the job. So you can continue your journey to the next stop. The workers will announce when they have found something.
